GradFunding Newsletter – January Edition

Dear Graduate Students,

Welcome back! As you get back into the swing of classes during the new year, check out this newsletter. We have some great opportunities in late January, early February, and early March for your consideration. Also, we want to be sure you know about upcoming funding information sessions and writing groups. We will be back with another GradFunding in February.

ABF/AccessLex Institute Doctoral Fellowship Program in Legal & Higher Education

The American Bar Foundation (ABF), in partnership with AccessLex Institute, is committed to developing the next generation of scholars interested in empirical and interdisciplinary research on legal and higher education. The purpose of the fellowship is to assist emerging scholars who are studying issues of access, affordability, or value in legal and higher education. This fellowship program seeks to cultivate a professional network of scholars who will produce innovative, objective, empirical, and interdisciplinary research in the field. Applications are invited from outstanding students who are candidates for LLM degrees, SJD degrees, and Ph.D. degrees across a broad range of disciplines, who will have completed all doctoral requirements except the dissertation by September 1, 2024. Doctoral research must address significant issues in the field and show promise of a major contribution to social scientific understanding of legal or higher education. Students from underrepresented minority groups and those attending schools not typically represented among law faculty are especially encouraged to apply.

- Deadline: January 16, 2024
- Citizenship: There are no citizenship requirements for this fellowship, but the Fellow must be authorized to work in the United States.

Wenner-Gren Post-Ph.D. Research Grants

This grant program funds individual research projects undertaken by doctorates in anthropology or a closely related field. Our goal is to support vibrant and significant work that furthers our understanding of what it means to be human. The Foundation particularly welcomes proposals that integrate two or more subfields and pioneer new approaches and ideas. Individuals who are within 5 months of receiving their doctorate or equivalent degree may apply, but they must complete their degree before the start date listed on their application form. There is no preference for any methodology, research location, topic, or subfield.

- Deadline: May 1, 2024
- Citizenship: Unrestricted
